

Olumide Soroye

Committees: Executive; Finance and Investment (Chair); Risk

Olumide Soroye brings more than 30 years of experience and expertise in executing software, data, analytics, and AI-advantaged strategies in connected digital workflows across multiple industries to the Verisk board.

Mr. Soroye is the President and Chief Executive Officer of Fortive Corporation (NYSE: FTV), an industrial and healthcare technology leader. As a member of the leadership team over the last 4 years, he has helped grow Fortive into a leading company with strategic focus on innovating essential technologies to keep the world safe and productive. Under Mr. Soroye's leadership, Fortive has been recognized as one of America's Most Responsible Companies by Newsweek for five consecutive years.

Before joining Fortive, Mr. Soroye was managing director at CoreLogic, where he led the transformation of the company into a highly profitable growth engine through data-driven digital workflow innovation and strategic acquisitions. Prior to that, Mr. Soroye was a partner with McKinsey & Company where he served leading technology, media and telecoms organizations around the world for over a decade.

Mr. Soroye serves as a Board Member of the Washington Roundtable, an organization working to effect positive change on public policy issues that are most important for economic vitality and opportunity creation for all Washingtonians.

Mr. Soroye holds an MBA from Harvard Business School and a JD from Loyola Law School. He lives in Seattle with his wife and their four children.