

Kathlyn Card Beckles

Chief Legal Officer

Kathy Card Beckles has been Verisk's chief legal officer since April 2021, providing leadership for all legal aspects of our business, as well as leading our corporate governance, compliance, sustainability, and internal audit functions.

She also assists the company and its Board of Directors in driving Verisk's strategy forward and pursuing all the best practices of a modern, well-run public company to maximize performance and ensure transparency.

Before joining Verisk, Kathy served as the General Counsel for Consumer Banking and the General Counsel for Credit Cards, Payments, Merchant Services and Digital at JPMorgan Chase.

Her prior legal experience includes private practice, the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, and federal courts. Before that, Kathy honed her operational and strategic problem-solving skills in analytical chemistry and process engineering positions.

Kathy's many awards include the Trailblazer Award from the National Bar Association, Corporate Counsel of the Year, and Black Achiever in Industry from the YMCA.

She holds a JD with honors from The George Washington University Law School and a degree in chemical engineering from the University of Delaware.

Since April 2022, Kathy has served on the Board of Directors of Nasdaq's US exchange subsidiaries.
